

2005 Conference Program

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Shelley Taylor-Smith
Who is Driving – How to Keep your Mind on the Job

Regardless of being tagged with “no natural ability”, “disabled” and “nothing above average”, our home grown, 7-time World No.1 Women’s Marathon Swimming Champion, Shelley Taylor-Smith, is the only woman to hold a No.1 world ranking for both men and women in the history of any sport worldwide.

Shelley will address the audience with personal views on the importance of always being focused on the task at hand and how to achieve it.

2005 IFAP / CGU Safe Way Awards Presentations

IFAP and CGU will be holding the 2005 IFAP / CGU Safe Way presentations in conjunction with the Welcome Cocktail Function in the exhibition area on Tuesday 15th November. Presentations of the 2005 Gold Safe Way Achiever Awards will be presented at the Skilled Gala Dinner on Wednesday 16th November.

Venue & Accommodation

The Esplanade Hotel (Cnr Marine Tce & Essex Street, Fremantle, Western Australia) has been chosen as the venue for the SafetyWA 2005 Conference as it offers an easy and relaxed atmosphere with the scenic surrounds of Fremantle Port.

Accommodation has been secured at the Esplanade at a discounted rate of $180 per room, per night (standard room only). If you would like to take advantage of this special offer, please contact Vertical Events and we will forward a booking form to you.
